

Capability Statement

WHO WE ARE

Established in 1995 in the state of Florida, Nova Consulting, Inc. is a certified minority, woman-owned (WOSB) engineering consulting firm. Nova serves its East Coast clients with office locations in Florida, New York, Maryland, and DC.

WHAT WE ARE

For over 25 years, Nova has built a reputation as a premier civil and environmental engineering consulting firm. It has earned recognition by having a solid track record of performance, with over 95% of business from repeat clients. This speaks of the company's ability to provide quality work products and client-focused service.

PROFESSIONAL STAFF

Our staff consists of highly skilled professional engineers, geologists, and scientists that specialize in water and wastewater, environmental assessment and compliance, remediation, feasibility and environmental impact studies, permitting, detailed engineering design, value analysis and life-cycle costing. Additionally, our Construction Management & Inspection team has successfully implemented construction projects from pre-construction through project close-out.

WHY US

What sets Nova apart from other firms is the fact that we have a streamlined and efficient organization designed to remain available and responsive to our client from beginning to end of every project. Our leadership believes in a hands-on approach to project management, and our decision making process is one that keeps in mind the client's goals and objectives, as well as budget and time constraints.

Specifically relevant is Nova's extensive experience working on Indefinite Quantity contracts that require staff flexibility and availability in order to successfully handle several work assignments at the same time. We don't just say we will do it, we have done it before!
